

GRIDS GET SMART

In the new world of energy transition, market deregulation and responsible consumption management, security and grid interconnection are a core issue for the Group. To adjust generation, distribution and consumption with more and more finesse, its personnel are committed to developing smart grids and are taking part in an increasing number of experiments in the field.

€3.2 billion INVESTED BY ERDF
IN DISTRIBUTION NETWORKS

35 million LINKY SMART METERS TO BE INSTALLED BY 2021,
REPRESENTING AN INVESTMENT OF AROUND €5 BILLION.

€1.37 billion INVESTED BY RTE IN 2014
IN THE REGULATED SECTOR.

