

EDF and water management

Apart from its mission as a power producer, EDF is a key stakeholder in shared management of water resources locally.

EDF reconciles hydropower operation with preservation of aquatic environments and sharing of water resources (drinking water supply, irrigation, low river flow augmentation, tourism and leisure activities, etc.).

