

EDF monitors meteorological events and resulting water flows

Monitoring relies on the professionalism and experience of expert EDF staff, and on regular audits, tests and drills. This monitoring process provides operators with ongoing access to all data necessary to anticipate events and manage their infrastructure optimally.

